

PARTIES BOOKING CONDITIONS

GENERAL

Should any of your guests or third parties employed by you behave in a manner that is considered unacceptable to the Company, the Company reserves the right to remove them from the premises and or terminate the Contract. In this event, no monies shall be refunded to you.

You shall be responsible for the costs of repairing any damage caused to the venue, its contents or the grounds of the venue by you, your guests or any third party employed by you in connection with the Event.

You shall not permit any goods, services or any other matter capable of being sold (including but not limited to tickets) to be sold within the Company's premises without prior written approval. The Company reserves the right at its sole discretion to amend these Terms at any time provided the Customer is notified in writing.

Each right or remedy of the Company under these Terms is without prejudice to any other right or remedy of the Company whether contractual or not.

Every clause and sub-clause in these Terms shall be severable and distinct from every other clause or sub-clause and if any clause or sub-clause of the these Terms is found by any court, tribunal or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, voidable, unenforceable or unreasonable it shall to the extent of such illegality, invalidity, voidness, voidability, unenforceability or unreasonableness be deemed severable and the remaining clauses or sub-clauses and the remainder of such clause shall continue in full force and effect.

Failure and delay by the Company in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision of these Terms will not be construed as a waiver or any of its rights under the Contract.

The Company may assign their rights and obligations under the Contract or any part of it to a person, firm or Company.

The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the Contract shall be governed by Scots Law and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Scottish Courts.

LIABILITY

The Company shall not be liable to you in contract, delict (including negligence or breach of statutory duty) misrepresentation or otherwise for any losses or damages suffered by you in connection with the Event or otherwise and whether direct or indirect and even if such losses and/or damages were foreseen, foreseeable, known, or the Company was advised of the possibility in advance.

Notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Contract, the Company's liability shall not be excluded or limited in respect of fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation by the Company, or death or personal injury caused by the Company's negligence (or the negligence of its employees or officers).

The entire liability of the Company under or in connection with the Contract whether for negligence, breach of contract, misrepresentation or otherwise shall be limited to the Event price.

You shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Company from and against all claims, actions, damages, liabilities and costs (including professional fees) arising from your acts or omissions or any of your guests or any third party employed by you, save to the extent that any such claim arises as a result of the negligence of the Company, its employees or agents.

FORCE MAJEURE

The Company shall not be liable to you for any delay in performing or failure to perform any of its obligations under the Contract which is due to any cause beyond its control and which is unknown to, and cannot reasonably be anticipated by, the Company, including, but not limited to, acts of civil or military authority, national emergencies, pandemics, fire, flood or catastrophe, acts of God, insurrection, employee actions (including strikes), war or riots and the Company's obligations under the Contract shall be suspended for so long as the event of Force Majeure continues and to the extent that it is so delayed.

If the Company is hindered or prevented from hosting the Event due to an event of force majeure, they may, at their sole discretion and without being liable for any losses or damages suffered by you, your guests or any third party employed by you, relocate the Event to another venue or terminate the Contract by giving written notice.
